

SCOTT C. POWELL, AIA, PRINCIPAL

Scott Powell has been in the architectural practice since 1978. He's been a principal at Architectura, PC since it's beginning in 1988, focusing on administration of the office, project management and project design. The types of projects include business office, laboratory, industrial, medical office, multi-family and municipal projects. He's key to our commitment to remain current with CAD technology and with applicable building codes.
